

Dealing with Difficult Issues

Issues in the workplace are often more difficult than they need to be. By organizing our approach and focusing on the right issues at the right time we can learn to work through difficult issues to find solutions that are equally acceptable to all of our stakeholders as well as our teams, the executives to whom we report - and ourselves!

Join us for an interactive discussion and collaborate with your peers about your own difficult issues and situations. What works? What doesn't? When should we walk away? Do we have the power or authority to expand the scenario to create a win-win? In this session we'll talk about some of the more serious and difficult problems that you will face as a supervisor.
